

CLEVELAND COUNTY LIBRARY SYSTEM

RULES OF USE

The Cleveland County Library System and the library's Advisory Board offers and maintains a welcoming environment open to all residents of Cleveland County regardless of age, sexual orientation, racial or ethnic origin, religion, or economic status.

To help ensure this welcoming environment, the following rules have been developed with all users in mind. These rules may be changed as needed and therefore are not limited to this current list. All patrons, visitors and staff are subject to them. Failure to abide by them may have serious consequences, including being banned from any or all branches of the Cleveland County Library System and/or involvement of law enforcement.

1. Obscene or abusive language, engaging in disorderly conduct, and/or committing a nuisance to other customers or library staff.
2. Use of tobacco products on library property in areas that are not designated for the use of tobacco products.
3. Playing of audio or video such that sound is audible to others.
4. Blocking or in any way interfering with the free movement of any person or persons on library property.
5. Sleeping.
6. Bringing animals other than service animals as covered by the ADA into CCLS locations.
7. Use or consumption of illicit drugs or alcoholic beverages in CCLS buildings or grounds and/or being in an intoxicated state in CCLS locations or grounds.
8. Removal of any CCLS property from the building or grounds without authorization through established lending procedures.
9. Soliciting or selling of any kind.
10. Panhandling and/or Loitering.
11. Distribution of leaflets or posting notices without authorization through established CCLS policies and procedures.
12. Consumption of food or beverages in non-designated areas in CCLS locations.

13. Following staff or customers around CCLS buildings or grounds or engaging in other harassing behavior such as staring or other intimidating verbal or physical acts.
14. Rearranging of any furniture in CCLS locations with the express permission of Cleveland County Library System staff.
15. Entering any Cleveland County Library System location without a shirt or footwear.
16. Any purposeful tampering or otherwise circumventing computer security software or downloading illegal software, or tampering with library computers or the library network.
17. Personal hygiene that interferes with enjoyment of the library by other customers and/or library staffs' ability to use library locations.
18. Unreasonable use of restrooms including, but not limited to laundering items, bathing, shaving, and sexual activity of any kind.
19. Unauthorized use of power outlets at any library location to include, but not limited to, cooking or the connection of unauthorized devices.

Violations of the Rules of Use will subject a customer, up to, and including, banning from all library locations/branches of the Cleveland County Library System.

North Carolina General Statutes Concerning Disruptive Customer Behavior

G.S. 14-33 Misdemeanor assaults, batteries, and affrays.

G.S. 14-76 Larceny, mutilation, or destruction of public records and papers.

G.S. 14-127 Willful and wanton injury to real property.

G.S. 14-132 Disorderly conduct in and injuries to public buildings and facilities.

G.S. 14-134 Trespass on land after being forbidden.

G.S. 14-159-13 Second degree trespass.

G.S. 14-190.9 Indecent exposure.

G.S. 14-204.1 Loitering for the purpose of engaging in prostitution offense.

G.S. 14-277.1 Communicating threats.

G.S. 14-398 Theft or destruction of property of public libraries, museums, etc.

G.S. 153A-266 Powers and duties of trustees.

These rules of use for the library were developed, in part, through consultation with North Carolina General Statutes Concerning Disruptive Customer Behavior

Adopted by the Library's Advisory Board on December 16, 2021